

Measure: Diabetic Eye Exam

Population: Patients ages 18-75 with Type 1 and 2 diabetes, who have a retinal or dilated eye exam performed in the current measurement year.

Measurement Range: Depends upon method, see below

Required Codes: Evidence of one of the following:

(to include date of service, examination of retina, result and eye care professional)

Retinal or dilated eye exam by eye care professional or results read by a system that provides an artificial intelligence interpretation in the measurement year	CPT: 67028, 67030, 67031, 67036, 67039-67043, 67101, 67105, 67107, 67108, 67110, 67113, 67121, 67141, 67145, 67208, 67210, 67218, 67220, 67221, 67227, 67228, 92002, 92004, 92012, 92014, 92018-92019, 92134, 92225-92228, 92230, 92235, 92240, 92250, 92260, 99203-99205, 99213-99215, 99242-99245	CPT II: Diabetic retinal screening with eye care professional: Evidence of Retinopathy: 2022F, 2024F, 2026F  No evidence of retinopathy: 2023F, 2025F, 2033F
Negative retinal or dilated eye exam (negative for retinopathy) in prior year	65091, 65093, 65101, 65103, 65105, 65110, 65112, 65114
Bilateral eye enucleation anytime during the patient's history through measurement year	Unilateral eye enucleation with a bilateral modifier: 65091, 65093, 65101, 65103, 65105, 65110, 65112, 65114 Bilateral modifier: 50

Exclusions: Patients without a diagnosis of diabetes, with gestational diabetes, steroid-induced diabetes or polycystic ovarian syndrome in prior or current measurement year. Patients 66 and older in LTC, SNF, with advanced illness or frailty, hospice, receiving palliative care and death in prior or current measurement year. **NOTE: Blindness is not an exclusion